GOV. TENER TO WAGE CAMPAIGN FOR ROADS

Chief Executive Says Tomatoes
He Will Travel State
for Bond Issue

IS AT HOME TO VOTE

Came to Charleroi This Morning From Pittsburg—Will Leave This Evening

Gov. J. K. Tener on the occasion of his first trip home in many weeks today gave out the information that he will travel Pennsylvania beginning shortly after the primaries in the interests of the $50,000,000 bond issue proposed by the state. Gov. Tener came home to vote, to visit his friend, Editor E. C. Niver of the Mail, who has been ill, as well as other friends and to talk over matters of interest with his Charleroi friends and associates.

Gov. Tener said in an interview: "Immediately after the primaries, I propose to go about the state, and meet farmers and others, advocating the support of the road bond issue proposition. I believe when the citizens of the state thoroughly understand the proposition, no votes will be cast against it except by those who may oppose it for political reasons.

"When farmers realize how much road improvement means to them and the fact that they will not be called upon to pay through taxation or otherwise one penny for construction or maintenance, the proposition is bound to meet with their favor. The roads designated by the Sproul act as state highways are the best in the state and generally speaking, the whole system of roads comprising more than 8,000 miles are in better shape today than at any time in the history of Pennsylvania."

Gov. Tener was unable to spend very much time in Charleroi on account of the necessity of returning to Harrisburg early tomorrow morning. He came from Pittsburg this morning on the 10:14 train, and will leave this evening at 5 o'clock.

SIX YOUTHS WERE TRIED

The juvenile court had six youngsters to dispose of on Monday including three boys who recently broke into the home of Endsley Cupp, of Speers. Howard Robinson and John Statzko, of Canton township, who had broken into a freight car and stolen beer therefrom, were permitted to return to their homes under the jurisdiction of the court. Raphaelle Giron a young Italian child from Avella was brought before the court as a neglected child. It developed that information concerning her was not correct and she was turned over to her father.

James Murphy a boy without a home or parents was sent to the Morganza school. He was the leader in the Speers burglary and was arrested in Charleroi. The other two boys who were mixed up in this trouble are of a respectable family and their school record is good. They were sent home with the promise of their parents that they would take care of them.

as Grapes

Bunch Grows on Vine in Garden of Charles Lewis on Luella Avenue

Tomatoes growing on a vine after the manner of a bunch of grapes is the unusual and freakish sight to be seen in the garden of Charles Lewis, of 203 Luella avenue. There is just one bunch of this nature on a very prolific vine. In the bunch there are 14 tomatoes, all in a perfect state of development, the entire weighing between 6 and 7 pounds. All but three of them are ripe. The tomatoes are of the kind known as the "Beefsteak" variety. Mr. Lewis has a garden full of them, and the soil seems to be particularly adaptable for their growth. Mr. Lewis has picked some of the tomatoes that weigh a pound apiece. His grape appearing bunch has attracted much attention and photographs have been taken of them.

OVERSEERS APPOINTED

pected at Monon-

THE BOARD IS TOO OLD

In an effort to straighten up the annual trouble at the second precinct of the second ward of Monongahela, the court has appointed Harry L. Ewing and Mortimer B. Collins overseers for the primary election today and the subsequent general election in November. This action by the court is a result of a petition signed by many of the voters of that section of the city. Every election there is trouble at that precinct and last year it was necessary to haul the entire board into court for a recounting of the ballots. At that time one man who was a candidate had 19 votes more than was even registered in the precinct. Then too the delay in the work as well as the congested conditions demanded some solution and the two overseers have been decided upon as this solution.

It is the largest voting precinct in the town and aside from the inability of the election board to handle the work, it has been said that voters have been annoyed and not permitted the privacy that their rights as voters provide.

There is a cause for all things and the trouble in Monongahela is due to the fact that the present board has ceased to be competent to conduct an election. The members are all well up in years and though their intentions are good, they are lacking in ability as well as defective in sight and hearing. The election in November will doubtless result in a change in the personnel of the board, as younger officials are needed and the

HEAVY FINE FACED BY THE CONTRACTORS

Every Day Federal Building is Not Completed Means $40 for the Government--
Oct. 1 the Date

With a fine of at least $1,200 staring them in the face the George W. Stiles Construction company of Chicago Ill., who have the general contract for the construction of the Charleroi Federal building, are exerting every effort to finish the structure by October 1. Extra men are being employed constantly and all that is possible is being done to rush the work. The contractors' time limit was up September 1 and every day that the building is not finished after that date is costing the Stiles Construction company $40. The ground was broken for the building on July 9, 1912 and was to have been completed by September 1, 1913, with a clause that each day after that date would cost the contractors $40.

Owing to the trouble that has been experienced in getting the various kinds of marble here, the contractors have experienced no end of delay in the last month or so and this is directly responsible for the inability to complete the work on time. Several kinds of marble is specified for different parts of the building, including Minnesota marble, Vermont marble, Georgia marble and Sylvan Green. All these must be shipped from different parts of the country and the delays in shipping and in route are going to cost the contractors much money.

Practically all the marble has arrived now, however and with an augmented force the contractors expect no further inconvenience. J. A. Leslie is in charge of the work for the Stiles company and he is pushing every source in his effort to complete the contract. October 1 has been set as the time for the completion of the work and around this date is being built the hopes of contractors and men alike.

Practically all the furniture has arrived for the new building and as rapidly as one compartment is sufficiently completed to permit of its installation, it is being erected, so that this detail will not delay the final clearing up.

One of the features which is attracting much attention is the arrangement for opening the windows in the main post office room. The windows are arranged in groups of six and each group is attached to a system of rods which are in turn connected with one vertical rod at one end of which is a gear and the other end a crank. The windows are fastened by a swivel in the center and to open each group of six the crank is turned. The superintendent states it is an innovation in ventilation and all who see it are greatly impressed with its convenience. The other finer details are also rapidly shaping themselves.

DONORA MAN VICTIM OF CARBOLIC ACID

J. R. Joy a Once Prominent Merchant Seeks Relief From Domestic Troubles by the Suicide Route. Died in Justice's Office

Once prominent in the business life of Donora, J. R. Joy, aged 68, dependent from financial disaster and wearied from domestic trouble drank carbolic acid Monday afternoon and died within an hour. After taking the poison he staggered to the office of W. S. Coatesworth, justice of the peace, where his wife had just entered information against him on a serious charge. Greeting her piteously with the words: "You get out of my sight. I don't want to see you any more. You've sent me to hell," he sank into a chair. Doctors were called but their medical aid was to no avail.

Joy formerly conducted a grocery in Donora and was well up in the business life of the town. He lost out in business simply through ill luck. He was married it is stated to a woman about 25 years his junior. They got along together poorly, it seems, and somewhat of an outcast, he began an existence that had in it all the elements of hopelessness. He just managed to exist and a good part of the time lived away from his wife and nine children because it is understood of the infelicity of home life. At times he was glad to creep into cellars and outhouses to sleep. Lately he secured a room at the home of a Mrs. Davis in Donora. At about that time his wife accused him of having improper relations with the woman. When he learned Monday that she had gone to the justice of the peace office to bring information against him, he went to a drug store and on the statement that he needed some carbolic acid for a calloused place on his foot secured a quantity of the poison.

Going into an alley he drank the poison, and then staggered to Justice of the Peace Coatesworth's office. His wife was just emerging. He told Justice Coatesworth he had taken poison and wished to die. This was the second time of the day he had been to the justice's office, having in the morning informed that official of his troubles.

After his death the body was taken to a Donora undertaking establishment and prepared for burial.

Must Build A New Road

Pennsylvania Railroad Told by Court What to Do at Elco Borough

In the suit of the commonwealth ex rel the borough of Elco against the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., a writ of alternative mandamus has been issued upon the railroad company, returnable to the first Monday of October, 1913. The railroad company is required forthwith to reconstruct a portion of the road in said borough running from Stony Hollow to Woods Run, one half mile in length, at its own proper cost and expense, or show cause why it does not do so. It is averred the railroad has appropriated the original road with its tracks and switches and has not reconstructed said road.

30,137 IN THE COUNTY

Enrollment of Voters Completed With Above
Result

MANY ARE NOT VOTING

The total enrollment of voters of Washington county was completed Monday when the registration from Monongahela was filed with the county commissioners. The grand total is 30,137 distributed as follows: Republican, 11,931. Democrat, 5,897. Washington, 2,080. Socialist, 1,261. Prohibition, 274. No choice, 8,694. Total enrollment, 30,137. Because of the personal registration in Monongahela it being a third class city, the registration was not filed until Monday. The results there show a total of 1,122. Republicans number, 791.

FUNERAL WAS HELD MONDAY

The funeral services were held Monday morning for Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Hardesty, of Speers, whose death occurred Saturday evening at the Charleroi-Monessen Hospital. Services were held by Rev. R. N. Large and Rev. A. D. Zahnizer and interment was made at Monongahela. Mrs. Hardesty was born January 6, 1887 and is survived by her husband, L. F. Hardesty and four children, Doris Elizabeth, Leslie Franklin, Joseph Chester and Idamay Freda, together with her father Fleming Cunningham of Monongahela, one sister, Mrs. Mary Riley of Lancaster, Ohio and two brothers John and Joseph Cunningham, also of Lancaster, as well as a host of sorrowing friends.

Charleroi Witnessing Hot Battle at the Primaries

BIG VOTE EXPECTED

Democrats on Their Mettle-- Supply of Ballots Proves to be Inadequate

Considerable excitement reigns about the polls today where one of the hottest primaries in the history of Charleroi is in progress. From the interest that was being taken this morning an ordinarily large vote is anticipated. In fact so great was the interest in the Democratic fight for Burgess that the supply of ballots—which in some precincts did not tally up to the figures of registration—had to be increased by special printing from the Mail print shop.

From the time of the opening of the polls at 7 o'clock this morning candidates have been busy. The main fight of course is for Burgess, with councilmanic scraps and the tax collector battles as side issues. Tax collector matters are attracting considerable attention and the indications are that there is going to be some close running on both the Republican and Washington party ticket for nomination. The fight for council is solely on the Republican ticket.

At 1:30 o'clock today the vote at the first precinct totalled 130 on all parties. There had up to this time 73 Republican votes been cast; 48 Democratic; 15 Washington party, no Socialist and one Prohibition. The Burgess candidates on the Republican ticket, according to the way they come on the ballot are Charles O. Frye, Capt. John K. Hein, and R. J. Whitehead. Charles O. Frye, however has posted notices of his withdrawal at the various precincts.

John Majors is certain of the Washington party nomination, being the only candidate, and Dr. J. W. Manon and S. L. Woodward are battling for supremacy on the Democratic ticket. The shortage of Democratic ballots at some of the precincts was due to the unusually heavy registration. The commissioners had to estimate the number of ballots that would likely be needed and have that many ready. They made the estimate on all the figures available and the fault was not theirs. The word to print extras came from Harry Campbell, clerk to the county commissioners.

SKILLED MEN ARE VALUABLE

Skilled workmen are much in demand throughout the valley at this time and the few that are available can command almost any price. There is much remodeling going on at this time in Monongahela and carpenters are at a premium. One merchant who is reconstructing his store went so far the other day as to hide the tools of one of the men working for him, in an effort to keep him on the job.

EVERY VOTER'S DUTY.

By the time this issue of the Mail reaches its readers the most of the electors will have cast their ballot.
In the county and municipal primary election that is being held today.
Many electors, however, remain away from the polls under the mistaken idea that the election of local candidates is not of sufficient warrant to leave their business affairs to cast their ballots. It is to these that this last appeal is made—to urge them to exercise their right of franchise and vote their conviction at the polls for the candidates of their choice.

While the local primaries may not seem important to many people it is these very offices that have to do with their daily life. The conduct of the public schools has to do with the primary education of our children, and constitutes in most cases the entire educational training that will be received. The borough affairs are most important also and have a direct bearing upon the business prosperity of the town. In county affairs the people are directly concerned, as much of their well being and comfort is dependent upon the correct and economic conduct of the county fiscal business.

Presumably the qualifications of the various candidates are set forth in their respective primary election.
Each ticket has a wide range of candidates to choose from. It is therefore incumbent upon these electors to vote for the proper conduct of offices. The question of local government is up to the voter. Today, and every voter should exercise his right of franchise.

BEECHAM'S PILLS

SERMON FOR ELECTION DAY

Claiming that our officials are ministers of God, Rev. P. A. Richards of the Methodist Episcopal church, urges all to vote intelligently, religiously and conscientiously.

At his services Sunday evening he preached on the text, "They are Ministers of God's Service," Romans 13:6. The sermon was one of the best that has ever been heard in Charleroi and touched upon a subject that is of much importance at this time—the election privilege and the voter's duty to the church. In part, Rev. Richards said:

"These are not words that are spoken of preachers, priests, bishops or archbishops but of the officials of the state. According to Paul's idea, and we believe it to be the correct one, the burgoes, the governor, the policeman and the constable are ministers of God.

"There are only three divine institutions, the home, the state and the church. In the church the pastors are God's representatives. In the home the parents are God's representatives and in the state the officials are God's representatives.

"If this be so we should be careful who we elect to office. What kind of men then should we elect? Let me name four necessary characteristics.
"First—They should be men who keep and have kept the law.

"Second—They should be properly qualified as regards ability. A man who has not been able to manage successfully his own business affairs is hardly qualified to manage the affairs of a city. Efficiency is the watchword.

"Third—To be a minister of God, a city's official should fear God and that fear should be so manifested in his life that there will not be any doubt in the minds of those who know him as to where he stands on the great moral question.

"Fourth—The City's officials should have a moral backbone and obey God rather than men.

"If the city's officials are ministers of God then there is a great responsibility resting on the citizen that he dare not shirk and he should cast his vote intelligently and in the fear of God. To vote is a religious duty as much as to pray. The welfare of the community depends upon the faithful performance of political duties by the intelligent moral citizens and it is a crying shame to neglect them.

"Forty per cent of the voters of the country abstained from voting at the last presidential election and we fear a large number of these were professing christians.

"It is a sin not to vote. One of the grievous evils of the past has been that men were led astray by party shibboleths. We are seeing the dawn of a better day of independence in the air.
It is a great pity that our last legislature did not enact a law taking out of party politics the local offices. In spite of this we must take the matter out of party politics. What matters a man's party whether he be Socialist, Democrat or Republican or Prohibitarian if he has the other necessary qualifications?

"Let us not be as we go to the polls, that we are voting to elect Ministers of God."

PREPARING A

NEW ORDINANCE

Following the instructions of the court in the recent adjudication handled down in the suit of the Bell Telephone company against the City of Monongahela, the ordinance committee and city solicitor of that place are at work on a new ordinance to be presented to the company in a short time.

This ordinance, it is understood will be similar to that rejected by the company a few months ago.
The greatest difficulty in reaching an agreement on the pole tax and the size and character of the pole to be erected in the city. Heretofore the city has charged the company one dollar per year per pole and this the company then objects to, claiming it inadequate.

It is expected that the company will turn down the ordinance when it is presented to them and if this is done, the matter will then go to the court for a decision. The outcome of the Monongahela telephone war is watched with much interest.

FOR BURGESS

To the Voters of Charleroi:

At the primary election
on Tuesday, September 16, 1913, I will be a candidate for burgoes on the Democratic ticket. I have been a taxpayer in Charleroi and forty Charleroi boroughs or fifteen years, and a consistent voter of the Democratic political faith. In giving your vote at the coming primary election, kind-give me a little consideration with the rest of the dates.

Respectfully,

S. L. Woodward

FOR TAX COLLECTOR

To the Voters of Charleroi:

At the primary election
to take place on Tuesday, September 16, I will be a candidate on the Washington Party Ticket for the office of Tax Collector. As accountant I have had 10 years experience, and as auditor of borough finances for two years, I have become familiar with the work of tax collecting. I am a property holder and tax payer and alive to the interests of the borough. In casting your vote at the primary election, I ask your kindly consideration.

Malone, N. Y. — "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has certainly done me a lot of good. I first heard of it when I was a girl and I always said that if I ever had female trouble I would take it.

"I suffered from organic inflammation and would have spells when I would be in such pain that I would tear my clothes. One day my husband got the neighbors in to see what the matter was but they could not help me. My first thought was for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I sent my husband out for it and took it until I was entirely cured. I am a woman of perfect health and my health and happiness came from Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine. You may rest assured that I do all I can to recommend your wonderful medicine to my friends." — Mrs. FRED STONE, Route No. 3, Malone, N. Y.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

A Suggestion for Digestion

Many persons suffer more or less from headache, dizziness, biliousness, and symptoms common to indigestion. There are various causes, such as over-starchy or greasy foods, improper mastication, or bad cooking.

Grape-Nuts

Solves the digestion problem.

This food, made from prime whole wheat and barley, is perfectly baked until the starch cells are either converted into easily digested grape-sugar, or thoroughly broken down for quick digestion--generally in about an hour.

There is no animal fat in Grape-Nuts.

The crisp granules of Grape-Nuts come to your table ready-to-eat direct from package, invite thorough mastication and have a peculiarly sweet, nut-like flavor.

Grape-Nuts, containing all the rich elements of wheat and barley, including the vital mineral salts, is a perfectly balanced food for building muscle, bone, brain and nerve.

Grape-Nuts is probably the longest baked, the best balanced and the most easily digested of all cereal foods. Wonderfully appetizing with cream and sugar.

"There's a Reason" for Grape-Nuts

NO ARRESTS IN MURDER CASE

Despite the fact that the coroner's jury recommended his apprehension and that officers in every town in this end of the state are searching for him Lorenzo Magnon, the young Italian of Washington, who is charged with the killing of Tony Scaglione at that place late Saturday night, is still at large. Every known means has been employed in the search for the fugitive, but all have been to no avail.

The jury, sitting at Washington on Monday, returned a verdict that Scaglione died as a result of hemorrhages due to several wounds in various parts of his body, caused by a razor in the hands of Lorenzo Magnon. They recommended his apprehension and his arraignment on a charge of murder.

Several witnesses were examined and many foreigners have been interviewed but little of value has been secured by the officers to assist them in their search. County Detective William McCleary is at work on the case and is following a line of investigation which he hopes will lead to the capture of the missing man.

It has been learned that a man answering the description of Magnon boarded an interurban car at Washington on Sunday morning and went to Pittsburg. He was visibly excited and was in a great hurry. This rumor is being investigated and may lead to his arrest.

The evidence brought out at the inquest is to the effect that a quarrel started between the dead man and Carmine Magnon, father of the fugitive. Insults were exchanged and the son is said to have taken up the father's quarrel with the fatal results that followed. After he had propped upon a chair and left to bleed propped upon a chair and left to bleed to death while the inmates of the house escaped. He was sitting propped up in the chair dead when found.

GOOD BILL FOR COYLE THEATRE

"The Beaten Path" a remarkable drama in three reels of motion picture, will be the stellar attraction at the Coyle theatre on Saturday. The picture features Miss Barbara Tennant and tells a story that is intensely interesting, thrillingly true to life with just sufficient of the prosaic to make it entertaining. It will undoubtedly be well received here. In addition to this picture are two others of exceptional value of which go to comprise a show to be anticipated with rare pleasure.

MARIAN LEONARD AT THE PALACE

Patrons of the Palace theatre this evening will have an opportunity to see the famous star Marion Leonard, who was formerly with the Biograph company, but who is now posing with the Monopole company. Miss Leonard is one of the highest salaried motion picture players in the world and is one of the best known. At the Palace tonight she will be seen in a masterpiece in three parts, "Those Who Live in Glass Houses." The management also offers a two reel production "A Dash to Liberty" by the Lubin company and a single reel picture "His Sister," by the Edison company.

GOV. TENER TO WAGE CAMPAIGN FOR ROADS

Chief Executive Says He Will Travel State for Bond Issue

Came to Charleroi This Morning From Pittsburg--Will Leave This Evening

Gov. J. K. Tener, on the occasion of his first trip home in many weeks today gave out the information that he will travel Pennsylvania beginning shortly after the primaries in the interests of the $50,000,000 bond issue proposed by the state. Gov. Tener came home to vote, to visit his friend, Editor E. C. Niver of the Mail, who has been ill, as well as other friends and to talk over matters of interest with his Charleroi friends and associates.

Gov. Tener said in an interview, "Immediately after the primaries, I propose to go about the state, and meet farmers and others, advocating the support of the road bond issue proposition. I believe when the citizens of the state thoroughly understand the proposition, no votes will be cast against it except by those who may oppose it for political reasons."

"When farmers realize how much road improvement means to them and the fact that they will not be called upon to pay through taxation or otherwise one penny for construction or maintenance, the proposition is bound to meet with their favor. The roads designated by the Sprout act as state highways are the best in the state and generally speaking, the whole system of roads comprising more than 8,000 miles are in better shape today than at any time in the history of Pennsylvania."

Gov. Tener was unable to spend very much time in Charleroi on account of the necessity of returning to Harrisburg early tomorrow morning. He came from Pittsburg this morning on the 10:15 train, and will leave this evening at 5 o'clock.

SIX YOUTHS

WERE TRIED

The juvenile court had six youngsters to dispose of on Monday including three boys who recently broke into the home of Endsey Cupp, of Speers. Howard Robinson and John Statzko, of Canton township, who had broken into a freight car and stolen beer therefrom, were permitted to return to their homes under the jurisdiction of the court. Raphael Giron, a young Italian child from Avella was brought before the court as a neglected child. It developed that information concerning her was not correct and she was turned over to her father.

James Murphy, a boy without a home or parents was sent to the Morganza school. He was the leader in the Speers burglary and was arrested in Charleroi. The other two boys who were mixed up in this trouble are of a respectable family and their school record is good. They were sent home with the promise of their parents that they would take care of them.

Tomatoes as Grapes

Bunch Grows on Vine in Garden of Charles Lewis on Luella Avenue

Tomatoes growing on a vine after the manner of a bunch of grapes is the unusual and freakish sight to be seen in the garden of Charles Lewis, of 203 Luella avenue. There is just one bunch of this nature on a very prolific vine. In the bunch there are 14 tomatoes, all in a perfect state of development, the entire weighing between 6 and 7 pounds. All but three of them are ripe. The tomatoes are of the kind known as the "Beefsteak" variety. Mr. Lewis has a garden full of them, and the soil seems to be particularly adaptable for their growth. Mr. Lewis has picked some of the tomatoes that weigh a pound apiece. His grape-appearing bunch has attracted much attention and photographs have been taken of them.

OVERSEERS APPOINTED

Better Results Are Expected at Monongahela

THE BOARD IS TOO OLD

In an effort to straighten up the annual trouble at the second precinct of the second ward of Monongahela, the court has appointed Harry L. Ewing and Mortimer B. Collins overseers for the primary election today and the subsequent general election in November. This action by the court is a result of a petition signed by many of the voters of that section of the city. Every election there is trouble at that precinct and last year it was necessary to haul the entire board into court for a recounting of the ballots. At that time one man who was a candidate had 19 votes more than was even registered in the precinct. Then too the delay in the work as well as the contested conditions demanded some solution and the two overseers have been decided upon as this solution.

It is the largest voting precinct in the town and aside from the inability of the election board to handle the work, it has been said that voters have been annoyed and not permitted the privacy that their rights as voters provide.

There is a cause for all things and the trouble in Monongahela is due to the fact that the present board has ceased to be competent to conduct an election. The members are all well up in years and though their intentions are good, they are lacking in ability as well as defective in sight and hearing. The election in November will doubtless result in a change in the personnel of the board, as younger officials are needed and the

Every Day Federal Building is Not Completed Means $40 for the Government--

Oct. 1 the Date

With a fine of at least $1,200 staring them in the face the George W. Stiles Construction company of Chicago Ill., who have the general contract for the construction of the Charleroi Federal building, are exerting every effort to finish the structure by October 1. Extra men are being employed constantly and all that is possible is being done to rush the work. The contractors' time limit was up September 1 and every day that the building is not finished after that date is costing the Stiles Construction company $40. The ground was broken for the building on July 9, 1912 and was to have been completed by September 1, 1913, with a clause that each day after that date would cost the contractors $40.

Owing to the trouble that has been experienced in getting the various kinds of marble here, the contractors have experienced no end of delay in the last month or so and this is directly responsible for the inability to complete the work on time. Several kinds of marble are specified for different parts of the building, including Minnesota marble, Vermont marble, Georgia marble and Sylvan Green. All these must be shipped from different parts of the country and the delays in shipping and in route are going to cost the contractors much money. Practically all the marble has arrived now, however and with an augmented force the contractors expect no further inconvenience. J. A. Leslie is in charge of the work for the Stiles company and he is pushing every source in his effort to complete the contract. October 1 has been set as the time for the completion of the work and around this date is being built the hopes of contractors and men alike.

Practically all the furniture has arrived for the new building and as rapidly as one component is sufficiently completed to permit of its installation, it is being erected, so that this detail will not delay the final clearing up.

One of the features which is attracting much attention is the arrangement for opening the windows in the main post office room. The windows are arranged in groups of six and each group is attached to a system of rods which are in turn connected with one vertical rod at one end of which is a gear and the other end a crank. The windows are fastened by a swivel in the center and to open each group of six the crank is turned. The superintendent states it is an innovation in ventilation and that he is greatly impressed with its convenience. The other finer details are also rapidly shaping themselves.

DONORA MAN VICTIM OF CARBOLIC ACID

J. R. Joy a Once Prominent Merchant Seeks Relief From Domestic Troubles by the Suicide Route. Died in Justice's Office

Once prominent in the business life of Donora, J. R. Joy, aged 68, dependent from financial disaster and wearied from domestic trouble drank carbolic acid Monday afternoon and died within an hour. After taking the poison he staggered to the office of W. S. Coatesworth, justice of the peace, where his wife had just entered information against him on a serious charge. Greeting her piteously with the words: "You get out of my sight. I don't want to see you any more. You've sent me to hell," he sank into a chair. Doctors were called but their medical aid was to no avail.

Joy formerly conducted a grocery in Donora and was well up in the business life of the town. He lost out in business simply through ill luck. He was married it is stated to a woman about 25 years his junior. They got along together poorly, it seems, and somewhat of an outcast, he began an existence that had in it all the elements of hopelessness. He just managed to exist and a good part of the time lived away from his wife and nine children because it is understood of the infelicity of home life. At times he was glad to creep into cellars and outhouses to sleep.

Lately he secured a room at the home of a Mrs. Davis in Donora. At about that time his wife accused him of having improper relations with the woman. When he learned Monday that she had gone to the justice of the peace office to bring information against him, he went to a drug store and on the statement that he needed some carbolic acid for a calloused place on his foot secured a quantity of the poison.

Going into an alley he drank the poison, and then staggered to Justice of the Peace Coatesworth's office. His wife was just emerging. He told Justice Coatesworth he had taken poison and wished to die. This was the second time of the day he had been to the justice's office, having in the morning informed that official of his troubles.

After his death the body was taken to a Donora undertaking establishment and prepared for burial.

At the Star.

The Star shows the Mutual program pronounced the world over as the best of all programs.

need is realized by the voters of the precinct. The first step in this direction was taken by the court on Monday when Clyde E. Davidson was appointed inspector for this precinct to succeed E. T. Nichols who has held the position for many years.

All Are Invited.

The Young Ladies Bible Class of St. Mary's Episcopal church will hold a devotional service and reception this evening in the church. All are cordially invited.

EXCITEMENT REIGNS AT THE POLLS TODAY

Must Build A New Road

Pennsylvania Railroad Told by Court What to Do at Elco Borough

In the suit of the commonwealth ex rel the borough of Elco against the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., a writ of alternative mandamus has been issued upon the railroad company, returnable to the first Monday of October, 1913. The railroad company is required forthwith to reconstruct a portion of the road in said borough running from Stony Hollow to Woolf Run, one half mile in length, at its own proper cost and expense, or show cause why it does not do so. It is averred the railroad has appropriated the original road with its tracks and switches and has not reconstructed said road.

FUNERAL WAS HELD MONDAY

The funeral services were held Monday morning for Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Hardesty, of Speers, whose death occurred Saturday evening at the Charleroi-Monessen Hospital. Services were held by Rev. R. N. Large and Rev. A. D. Zahnizer and interment was made at Monongahela.

Mrs. Hardesty was born January 6, 1887 and is survived by her husband, L. F. Hardesty and four children, Dorcie Elizabeth, Leslie Franklin, Joseph Chester and Idamay Freda, together with her father Fleming Cunningham of Monongahela, one sister, Mrs. Mary Riley of Lancaster, Ohio and two brothers John and Joseph Cunningham, also of Lancaster, as well as a host of sorrowing friends.

Charleroi Witnessing Hot Battle at the Primaries

Democrats on Their Mettle-- Supply of Ballots Proves to be Inadequate

Considerable excitement reigns about the polls today where one of the hottest primaries in the history of Charleroi is in progress. From the interest that was being taken this morning an ordinarily large vote is anticipated. In fact so great was the interest in the Democratic fight for largess that the supply of ballots--which in some precincts did not tally up to the figures of registration--had to be increased by special printing from the Mail print shop.

From the time of the opening of the polls at 7 o'clock this morning candidates have been busy. The main fight of course is for burgess, with councilman races and the tax collector battles as side issues. Tax collector matters are attracting considerable attention and the indications are that there is going to be some close running on both the Republican and Washington party ticket for nomination. The fight for council is solely on the Republican ticket.

At 1:30 o'clock today the vote at the first precinct totalled 180 on all parties. There had up to this time 78 Republican votes been cast; 43 Democratic; 15 Washington party; no Socialist and one Prohibition.

The burgess candidates on the Republican ticket, according to the way they come on the ballot are Charles O. Frye, Capt. John K. Hein, and R. J. Whitehead. Charles O. Frye, however has posted notices of his withdrawal at the various precincts.

John Majors is certain of the Washington party nomination, being the only candidate, and Dr. J. W. Manon and S. L. Woodward are battling for supremacy on the Democratic ticket.

The shortage of Democratic ballots at some of the precincts was due to the unusually heavy registration. The commissioner had to estimate the number of ballots that would likely be needed and have that many ready. They made the estimate on all the figures available and the fault was not theirs. The word to print extras came from Harry Campbell, clerk to the county commissioners.

SKILLED MEN ARE VALUABLE

Skilled workmen are much in demand throughout the valley at this time and the few that are available can command almost any price. There is much remodeling going on at this time in Monongahela and carpenters are at a premium. One merchant who is reconstructing his store went so far the other day as to hide the tools of one of the men working for him, in an effort to keep him on the job.

EVERY VOTER'S DUTY.

By the time this issue of the Mail
reaches its readers the most of the electors will have cast their ballots in the county and municipal primary election that is being held today.
Many electors, however, remain away
from the polls under the mistaken
idea that the election of local candidates is not of sufficient warrant to leave their business affairs to cast their ballots. It is to these that this last appeal is made to urge them to exercise their right of franchise and
vote their conviction at the polls for
the candidates of their choice.

While the local primaries may not seem important to many people it is these very offices that have to do with their daily life. The conduct of the public schools has to do with the primary education of our children, and contributes in most cases the entire educational training that will be received. The borough affairs are most important also and have a direct
bearing upon the business prosperity
of the town. In county affairs the people are directly concerned, as much
of their well being and comfort is dependent upon the correct and economic conduct of the county fiscal business.

Presumably the qualifications of the various candidates are settled in their respective primary elections.
Each ticket has a wide range of candidates to choose from. It is therefore incumbent upon these electors to vote for the proper conduct of offices. The question of local government is up to the voters today, and every voter should exercise his right
of franchise.

School Board to Meet.

The school board is scheduled to hold a meeting tonight for the transaction of their regular business.

PREACHES A SERMON FOR ELECTION DAY

Claiming that our officials are ministers of God, Rev. F. A. Richards of the Methodist Episcopal church,
urges all to vote intelligently, religiously and conscientiously.

At his services Sunday evening he
preached on the text, "They are Ministers of God's Service," Romans 13:8. The sermon was one of the best that has ever been heard in Charleroi and touched upon a subject that is of much importance at this time—the election privilege and the voter's duty to the church. In part, Rev. Richards said:

"These are not words that are
spoken of preachers, priests, bishops
or archbishops but of the officials of the state. According to Paul's idea, one, the burgoes, the governor, the
policeman and the constable are ministers of God.

"There are only three divine institutions, the home, the state and the church. In the church the pastors are God's representatives. In the home
the parents are God's representatives, and in the state the burgoes are God's representatives.

"If this be so we should be careful who we elect to office. What kind of men then should we elect? Let me name three necessary characteristics.

"First—They should be men who
keep and have kept the law.

"Second—They should be properly
qualified as regards ability. A man who has not been able to manage successfully his own business affairs is hardly qualified to manage the affairs of a city. Efficiency is the watchword.

"Third—To be a minister of God, a city's official should fear God and that fear should be so manifest in his life that there will not be any
doubt in the minds of those who know him as to where he stands on the question.

"Fourth—The City's officials should have a moral backbone and obey God
rather than men.

"If the city's officials are ministers of God there is a great responsibility resting on the citizen that he dare not shirk and he should cast
his vote intelligently and in the fear of God. To vote is a religious duty as much as to pray. The welfare of the community depends upon the faithful performance of political duties by the intelligent moral citizens and it is a crying shame to neglect
them.

"Forty per cent of the voters of the country abstained from voting at the last presidential election and we had a large number of these were professing Christians.

"It is a sin not to vote. One of the greatest evils of the past has been that men were excused by party shrewdness. We are seeing the dawn of a better day—Independence is in the air.
It is a great pity that our last legislature did not enact a law taking out of party politics the local offices. In spite of this we must take the matter
out of party politics. What matters
a man's party whether he be Socialist, Democrat, Republican or Prohibi-tionist if he has the other necessary qualifications."

"Let us remember as we go to our polls that we are voting for the Ministers of God."

PREPARING A NEW ORDINANCE

Following the instructions of the court in the recent adjudication handled down by the court of the Bell Telephone company against the City of Monongahela, the ordinance committee and city solicitor of that place are
at work on a new ordinance to be presented to the company in a not too distant future. This ordinance, it is understood will be similar to that rejected
by the company a few months ago.
The greatest difficulty is reaching an agreement on the pole tax and the size and character of the pole to be erected in the city. Heretofore the city has charged the company one dollar per year per pole and this the company has refused to claim it inequitable.

It is expected that the company will turn down the ordinance when it is presented to them and if this is done
the matter will then go to the court
for a decision. The outcome of the Monongahela telephone war is watched with much interest.

FOR BURGESS

To the Voters of Charleroi:

At the primary election
on Tuesday, September 18, 1918, I will be a candidate for burgoes on the Democratic ticket. I have been a taxpayer in Charleroi and North Charleroi boroughs for fifteen years, and a consistent voter of the Democratic political faith. In giving your vote at the coming primary election, kindly give me a little consid-

FOR TAX COLLECTOR

To the Voters of Charleroi:

At the primary election
to take place on Tuesday, September 16, I will be a candidate on the Washington Party Ticket for the office
of Tax Collector. As accountant I have had 10 years experience, and as auditor
of borough finances for two years, I have become familiar with the work of tax collecting. I am a property holder and tax payer and
alive to the interests of the borough. In casting your vote at the primary election, I ask your kindly consideration.

A Suggestion for Digestion

Many persons suffer more or less from headache, dizziness, biliousness, and symptoms common to indigestion. There are various causes, such as over-starchy or greasy foods, improper mastication, or bad cooking.

Grape-Nuts

Solves the digestion problem.

This food, made from prime whole wheat and barley, is perfectly baked until the starch cells are either converted into easily digested grape-sugar, or thoroughly broken down for quick digestion--generally in about an hour.

There is no animal fat in Grape-Nuts.

The crisp granules of Grape-Nuts come to your table ready-to-eat direct from package, invite thorough mastication and have a peculiarly sweet, nut-like flavor.

Grape-Nuts, containing all the rich elements of wheat and barley, including the vital mineral salts, is a perfectly balanced food for building muscle, bone, brain and nerve.

Grape-Nuts is probably the longest baked, the best balanced and the most easily digested of all cereal foods. Wonderfully appetizing with cream and sugar.

NO ARRESTS IN MURDER CASE

Despite the fact that the coroner's jury recommended his apprehension and that officers in every town in this end of the state are searching for him Lorenzo Magnon, the young Italian of Washington, who is charged with the killing of Tony Scaglione at that place late Saturday night, is still at large. Every known means has been employed in the search for the fugitive, but all have been in no avail.

The jury, sitting at Washington on Monday, returned a verdict that Scaglione died as a result of hemorrhages due to several wounds in various parts of his body, caused by a razor in the hands of Lorenzo Magnon. They recommended his apprehension and his arraignment on a charge of murder.

Several witnesses were examined and many foreigners have been interviewed but little of value has been secured by the officers to assist them in their search. County Detective William McCleary is at work on the case and is following a line of investigation which he hopes will lead to the capture of the missing man.

It has been learned that a man answering the description of Magnon was seen on Sunday morning and went to Pittsburg. He was visibly excited and was in a great hurry. This rumor is being investigated and may lead to his arrest.

The evidence brought out at the inquest is to the effect that a quarrel started between the dead man and Lorenzo Magnon, father of the fugitive. Insults were exchanged and the son is said to have taken up the father's quarrel with the fatal results that followed. After he had propped upon a chair and left to bleed propped upon a chair and left to bleed to death while the inmates of the house escaped. He was sitting propped up in the chair dead when found.

GOOD BILL FOR COYLE THEATRE

"The Beaten Path" a remarkable drama in three reels of motion picture, will be the stellar attraction at the Coyle theatre on Saturday. The picture features Miss Barbara Tennant and tells a story that is intensely interesting, thrillingly true to life with just sufficient of the prosaic to make it entertaining. It will undoubtedly be well received here. In addition to this picture are two others of exceptional value of which go to comprise a show to be anticipated with rare pleasure.

MARIAN LEONARD AT THE PALACE

Patrons of the Palace theatre this evening will see the famous star Marion Leonard, who was formerly with the Biograph company, but who is now posing with the Monopole company. Miss Leonard is one of the highest salaried motion picture players in the world and is one of the best known. At the Palace tonight she will be seen in a masterpiece in three parts, "Those Who Live in Glass Houses." The management also offers a two reel production "A Dash to Liberty" by the Lubir company and a single reel picture "His Sister," by the Edison company.

A Dash to Liberty, 2 reel special. Those Who Live in Glass Houses, 3 reel special. His Sister, one reel. Palace tonight. 55-11

"Bert" Corry Dies

Word has been received here of the death of Albert Corry, formerly druggist at Weltner's pharmacy. His demise occurred in McKeesport. After leaving Charleroi, Mr. Corry took charge of a drug store in Monessen, from where he went to McKeesport.

The Mutual Program at the Star Theatre is an insurance of a good show. 55-12
